

Yale Young Global Scholars-Singapore Program

Application Fee Waiver Form

If you feel that the $55 application fee presents a severe hardship for your family, please see the requirements on page 2 to determine whether you would be eligible to receive an application fee waiver.

INSTRUCTIONS: All students requesting an application fee waiver for the Yale Young Global Scholars-Singapore Program must upload this completed form with the financial aid portion of their application.

Students must complete and sign the top portion of the form, while the bottom portion must be completed and signed by an authorized official. An authorized official is someone over 18 who is: 1) a high school counselor or school administrator; 2) an official representative of a federal, state, or local program serving low-income students; 3) a social worker or other federal, state, or local employee of a social service organization serving low-income families; or 4) a certified independent counselor. If you have questions about who qualifies as an authorized official, please contact us directly at yygs.singapore@yale.edu.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS: Student must currently be a 9th or 10th grade student applying to the Yale Young Global Scholars-Singapore Program and meet at least one of the indicators of economic need (see page 2) in order for this form to be considered valid.
